Dear Hebrew learners

Thank you for attending our classes. We value your input and strive to provide you with the best possible education.

Please take a moment to read the Adult Hebrew policy and take note of the fees and attendance.

We thank you for your cooperation.

Kind regards

Rachele Schonberger
Principal

Hebrew Policy – payment of fees and general 2016

1. Students must pay for each semester before the semester begins.
2. Students may pay for the year upfront and receive a discount
3. New students may attend the first lesson on trial free of charge.
4. New students must enrol prior to commencement and complete an interview with BJE representative. Students will not be accepted into class if they turn up unannounced.
5. If a student is not financial, the enrolment will cease until finances are up-to-date.
6. Students are required to pay fees on a semester basis or yearly. No refunds for parts of semester will be given for any reason i.e. students going on holidays, work commitments, illness, etc.
7. If a new student joins a class after the semester commences, the student must pay pro-rata of the term fees plus $25.00 administration fee.
8. If you pay by cash or cheque please contact the BJE office on 9365 7900.
9. The teacher will decide into which class a student is placed.
