Dear Hebrew learners,

Thank you for attending our classes. We value your input and strive to provide you with the best possible education.

Please take a moment to read the Adult Hebrew policy and take note of the fees and attendance.

We thank you for your cooperation.

Kind regards,

Rachele Schonberger Principal

Hebrew Policy - payment of fees and general 2016

- 1. Students must pay for each semester before the semester begins.
- 2. Students may pay for the year upfront and receive a discount
- 3. New students may attend the first lesson on trial free of charge.
- 4. New students must enrol prior to commencement and complete an interview with BJE representative. Students will not be accepted into class if they turn up unannounced.
- 5. If a student is not financial, the enrolment will cease until finances are up-to-date.
- 6. Students are required to pay fees on a semester basis or yearly. No refunds for parts of semester will be given for any reason i.e. students going on holidays, work commitments, illness, etc.
- 7. If a new student joins a class after the semester commences, the student must pay pro-rata of the term fees plus $25.00 administration fee.
- 8. If you pay by cash or cheque please contact the BJE office on 9365 7900.
- 9. The teacher will decide into which class a student is placed.
- 10. Students may be moved into alternative classes held on alternative times after consultation with the teacher.
- 11. BJE is a strictly Kosher premises and therefore we request that all food being brought in be Kosher. No meat is permitted to be on the premises.
